WHEREAS, Ms. Peggy Hancock, Right-of-Way Agent, for the Arizona Department of Transportation has come before the Tribal Council with a request for Tribal Council's permission to dismantle the existing meandering Right-of-Way fence, both right and left, from Mile Post 340.8 to Mile Post 350.4 along State Highway Route 73, and

WHEREAS, Ms. Hancock advised the Tribal Council that the present meandering fence will be dismantled by the Arizona Department of Transportation and will be replaced by a new fence on both sides between the Mile Posts and that the Arizona Department of Transportation is requesting permission to tie the new fence to existing cattleguards and walk-in gates which may possibly be beyond the State Right-of-Way, and further, that the Arizona Department of Transportation also requests permission to clear brush and trees within the Right-of-Way, both left and right, and along the new fence line to existing cattleguards and walk-in gates as is necessary which may possibly require the Arizona Department of Transportation to clear brush and trees outside the existing Right-of-Way, and
