

RESOLUTION OF THE
WHITE MOUNTAIN APACHE TRIBE OF THE
FORT APACHE INDIAN RESERVATION

- WHEREAS, the Tribal Council has received numerous complaints about livestock, and in particular horses roaming or grazing on Highway 73 between Hondah and Whiteriver and between Whiteriver and Carrizo Junction; and
- WHEREAS, Ordinance No. 99 codified as Chapter 2 of the Livestock Code prohibits livestock from roaming or grazing on any highway within the reservation and provides that such livestock shall be subject to immediate impoundment and sale pursuant to the Livestock Code; and
- WHEREAS, pursuant to the Livestock Code, the General Livestock Coordinator has the obligation and authority to impound such trespassing livestock; and
- WHEREAS, the General Livestock Manager position is presently vacant; and
- WHEREAS, the Tribal Council is also advised that prior enforcement by General Livestock Manager has been met with threats from livestock owners who oppose impoundment of livestock; and
- WHEREAS, the Tribal Council therefore concludes that enforcement of Ordinance No. 99 should be broadened to allow tribal police officers, boundary patrol, game and fish rangers and cross deputized and commissioned White Mountain Apache police officers from other agencies to issue citations for violation of Ordinance No. 99 and to impound trespassing livestock; and
- WHEREAS, the Tribal Attorney advises the Tribal Council that redefining those tribal officials who are authorized to enforce Ordinance No. 99 and to provide for the issuance of civil and criminal citations for violations necessitates that Ordinance No. 99 be amended and be posted for public comment prior to final enactment by the Tribal Council.
